ANTI RAGGING POLICY

Ragging term is use "initiation ritual" practice in higher education. Ragging involves abuse humiliation or harassment of new entrants or junior students by their seniors. It often takes a malignant form where the new comers may be subjected to psychological or physical torture. Any act of physical or mental abuse targeting at another student on the ground of color, race, religion, caste, ethnicity, Gender, sexual orientation, regional origins or economic background comes under ragging. The UGC imposed regulation upon Indian universities/ colleges to help curb ragging and launched a toll free anti-ragging helpline in 2009. Ragging in India involves clear violation of human rights.

As per order of Supreme Court of India (2009) and notification from university grants commission, ragging constitutes on:

- A. Teasing and handling with rudeness.
- B. Prevents and disrupts the regular academic activity.
- C. Harm or creates fear in the campus.
- D. By spoken words, e-mails, SMS or public insult to human dignity.
- E. Kidnapping, molesting, use of criminal forces, trespass etc.
- F. Assemble or conspiracy of ragging.
- G. Violate status, dignity belong to SC/ST.

Objective of Anti-ragging Committee

As per UGC guidelines, an anti ragging cell is compulsory in every educational institution. Anti ragging cell is one of the most important part of our college. It is the supervisory and advisory committee for ragging free environment in our college. All the students who take admission in our college; an affidavit is signed by the student and their parent submitted along with the admission form. The main objectives of this cell are as given below:-

- (i) To aware the students of the dehumanizing effect of ragging.
- (ii) To keep a continuous vigilance over ragging.
- (iii) To increase the friendship among batch mates.
- (iv) To deal with the incidents of ragging strictly.
- (v) No student will be tolerated if found guilty by giving a clear message through prospectus, notice boards, banners etc.

Reporting Complaints to the Anti-Ragging Cell

The college encourages reporting without any fear and complaints can be made in any of the following ways-

1. In person to any member of anti-ragging committee.
2. Through e-mail to any member of anti-ragging committee.

Identity of the complainant or victim will be kept confidential. The complaint without name will be rejected.

Making Inquiries in to the Complaints

1. Any complaint of ragging received from the victim will be forwarded to the principal within two working days and a meeting of ant ragging committee will be held within six working days of receipt of complaint.
2. A notice will be issued to the respondent within four working days of the meeting convened and six working days time will be given to the respondent for reply in this regard.
3. The enquiry shall be completed within ten working days after receiving the reply of respondent.
4. The Committee will provide a report of its findings to the college within ten working days from the date of completion of the inquiry.
5. Proceedings of the inquiry will be kept confidential.
